HE UNFORTUNATE.

EMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES.

r Gibbon's Dispensary

KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL. Established 1854, [for the treat]ment of Sexual and [Private dis]eases, such as Gonor[rhea], Stricture, Syphilis, [Seminal Weak]ness, etc., Skin Diseases of [long stand]ing and Ulcerated Legs treated.

Horrible Diseases

y thousands of persons of both male and female who are suffering [illegible] miserable existence the effects of secret indulgences or from virus to the system. Look at their pallid emaciated faces and their broken down constitutions, [disqu]alifying them for the happiness of marriage [and enjoy]ment of life. [illegible] this horrid situation they [illegible] until death closes the scene. Let parents [and f]riends attend to those who are suffering with [the]se horrible life-destroying maladies, see that [they are car]ed for and cured before it be too late. Send [immed]iately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has [made th]e disease his especial study for years, and who [can] cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or injurious drugs. It is important to these afflicted, or to their friends, who are interested in the[ir] [illegible] to be careful of the many pre[tenders] who infest all cities, [illegible] their skill [illegible] in a few days, imposing upon the [illegible] the name of eminent physicians from other places. Be therefore careful and make [inquir]y, or you may fall into the hands of those [illegible]

Seminal Weakness

[Th]ose the consequences of self-abuse. This [illegible] or depraved sexual indulgence is practised [illegible] of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, [illegible] with unerring certainty the following train [of s]ymptoms, unless combatted by scientific med[icin]es, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under [the eyes,] pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noises like [the rustl]ing of leaves and rattling of chariots, unea[siness about the lo]ins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, [dullness of int]ellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in ap[proaching] strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintance, [a desire] to shun society, loss of memory, hectic [flushes, pim]ples and various eruptions about the face, [illegible] fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night [emissions], monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be [desired he] should apply immediately, either in person, and have a cure effected by this new and safe [method] of treating this disease, which never fails of [a] quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One [Thousand D]ollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily that he was cured of this complaint by either [of the] [illegible] quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

[or those] who contemplate marriage, who are suffering [from any] of these fearful maladies, should not forget the [illegible] ability resting upon them nor delay in [seeking] a relief.

[DR.] GIBBON is responsible and will give to each [patient a w]ritten instrument binding himself to effect a [perman]ent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME

[Persons] at a distance may be CURED AT HOME [by address]ing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, [leng]th of time the disease has continued, and have [medicine] promptly forwarded free from damage and [curiosi]ty to any part of the country, with full and plain [directions] for use, for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter [thro]ugh Wells, Fargo & Co.

[C]aution to the Unfortunate.

[Beware] of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, [illegible] sworn-to certificates dupe the unwary. [Th]e self styled doctors whose names are to be [seen in] the daily and weekly newspapers of San Fran[cisco and] other places are tradesmen and became too [illegible] at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoe[makers, n]ewspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, [illegible] over the San Francisco Directory and you [will fin]d their Medical Institutes in it, but you will [find their] former occupations in it. Look at the Direc[tory for 1]862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition [is to m]ake enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and [save] you many regrets; for as advertising physi[cians, e]ight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no [t]rusting any of them until you know who and [what they] are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by [illegible] bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's [illegible]. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may [call at his o]ffice of his ability to treat diseases that he [illegible] cure.

[Address] DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, cor[ner Comm]ercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252. [REMEMB]ER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER. [Consulta]tions FREE.

[Corresp]ondents will please inform DR. GIBBON [where they s]aw his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. jy6d4ptf

CHASE AND SEYMOUR.

[From the [illegible], Nov 21.]

There is very little doubt but the scheme to get rid of Seymour and Blair for Chase and Adams had its origin in this city—or at least prominent Democrats of this city were cognizant at an early period that such a proposition would be made. On the day that Alex. Long, Wash. McLean and others were in consultation with Frank Blair at the Spencer House, [illegible] their [illegible] bring about the [illegible] telegram was received from Marble, of the New York World, addressed to Wash. McLean, but which that gentleman is said to have never received. It first reached the hands of a clerk in the office of the Enquirer and was by him opened, he supposing it was on business appertaining to the office. It was as follows:

WASH. McLEAN: Sir—The article will appear in to-morrow's World—nearer the time [illegible] breakfast [illegible] MARBLE.

The clerk requested a former [illegible] of the Enquirer to take the dispatch to the Spencer House, where it was thought McLean was at the time. The quondam reporter took the dispatch and promised to deliver it as requested, but was unable to find the gentleman for whom it was intended, and he carried it about in his pocket for two days without seeing McLean, when thinking it was too late to do any good by placing it in his hands, he destroyed it. Such is his story. Meanwhile the promised article did appear in the World and we all know what a tempest among the Democracy was created thereby. It virtually recommended the substitution of Chase for Seymour. But the Enquirer was not prompt in seconding this motion, and not until some days after did it make known its preference for a new candidate. It was evident that something had hung fire. It was the telegram of Marble to McLean. Had that been properly received there is no doubt the Enquirer would have pushed the proposition fast and hot, but it fell into the hands of one who had failed to comprehend its importance, and as there was "no time to lose" the great opportunity was lost—the Enquirer failing to back the World in due time. There is no telling what the result would have been had McLean received this telegram in time. That he was expecting such a dispatch there is very little doubt, and its non-receipt disarranged the plans of the great President maker, who was for a day at least at a loss how to act. We doubt if he has been informed of such dispatch up to this time, and he will first learn of its receipt in our columns. We do know that at one time during the interesting period referred to the managing editor of the Enquirer boasted in advance that Chase was to be the candidate, and was to receive the full strength of that journal in his support. It is altogether probable that had Wash. McLean received the dispatch sent by Marble, posting him how to act, Chase instead of Seymour would have been the candidate of the Democracy at the polls, but the telegram's miscarriage threw everything into disorder and Seymour remained on the ticket to be badly beaten.

NORTH CAROLINA.

[Raleigh Correspondence (Nov 18) N. Y. Tribune.]

Amid the most overwhelming opposition the Republicans have carried the State for Grant by a majority of 12 000. They have elected six Congressmen. Threats and intimidation were freely used by the old political leaders, but the colored people marched in solid column and voted for the nominee of the Chicago Convention. Had the prominent leaders of the party in this State been men of character and standing, North Carolina would have rolled up a majority of 40 000 for Grant.

Another reason why the majority is not so large as last year arises from the large number of Conservatives who had their disabilities removed by the action of the last Congress. There were over 20 000 of this class and nearly all of them voted against the men who aided in taking away their disabilities.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE.

[Boston Letter Nov 15.]

It is stated on the authority of the Chairman of the County Commissioners of Plymouth County that the American end of the new line of telegraph from Europe is to be landed at a high knoll on the Duxbury shore known as "The Hammock," and that the town has given a lot of land for the terminus. The land is now held by Professor Pierce and Mr Whiting of the coast survey as trustees. The town of Duxbury is one of the oldest in Massachusetts. It was first settled about the year 1632 by the people of Plymouth, and was the second town established within the colony. It received its name out of respect to Capt. Miles Standish, from Duxbury Hall, the seat of the Standish family in England. In 1643 the population of Duxbury was about four hundred, and among the earlier settlers of the place were some of the oldest and ablest men in the Plymouth colony. Inseparably connected with those early days will ever remain the story of the "Courtship of Miles Standish," so beautifully rendered by Longfellow. Hobomok, the Christian Indian, for twenty years the faithful friend of the colony, lived here with Miles Standish. Duxbury has a population of 2 500. Ship building was extensively carried on here at one time.

THE KILLING OF POLLARD.

[From the N. Y. Times Nov 26.]

The Pollard tragedy at Richmond illustrates afresh the truth of the Scripture saying that they that take the sword shall perish by the sword. The evidence given to the jury is a significant comment on the wearing of deadly weapons by civilians, and Pollard and Hanna appear to have been loaded down with them. Mr Craddock, detective, testifies that he came up to Hanna saying, "Who did this? Certainly, Hanna, you could not have done it." Whereupon, in mute token of his innocence, Hanna produced his pistol, which was still loaded." Mr Hanna then remarked that "Pollard's pistol had probably exploded in his pocket," but "upon examining his weapons, three in number, it was found that all were loaded." Next the detective went to Grant's and found him standing in the room. He handed me a Derringer pistol. Then [illegible] they proceeded to the Station house, when [illegible] his revolver on the table and a double-barreled shot gun, with the right barrel empty. That is the way the story goes throughout. The pistol is the badge of civilization there, one would say. Where men go about armed habitually with three pistols apiece, what wonder if assassination results?

THE ARTICLES FOR WHICH MR. POLLARD WAS ASSASSINATED.

[From the Richmond Southern Opinion.]

"Oh! no, we never mention em."—Old Air.

The Indian Summer has passed away, and with it has passed a fair and radiant daughter of one of our fair citizens—a nabob on Clay street—a gentleman who, suffice it to say, holds the very position in the wealthy and fashionable circles of the city. The daughter, the rebellent Helene of the family, is beautiful beyond description, but her beauty did not fall desperately and irretrievably in love with a young gentleman of [illegible] connections who it appears some months ago plighted his truth and accepted the tiny hand grasping it within his own—

"Never to be parted, never for aye."

Nobody suspected a mesalliance, much less the father, until last Saturday night, when the daughter who was the light of his household fled to parts unknown, or at least only guessed, in company with one (a masculine) who should ere then have been proclaimed his son in law.

The runaway parties have been heard from, and it is now said that the lady proclaims herself a wife of some six months, and that her alliance is the choice of her after life.

What [illegible]

The gay young man who has whisked away the angel is a [illegible] Horace Ford, of Goochland county, which county ought to be proud of him as it doubtless is. Horace is [illegible] than just plunging into his teens and has lost both of his parents by death. Much property [illegible] Horace [illegible] ventured [illegible] swim in the sea of gay life and love. He met Miss Mary Grant—a beauty.

[illegible] talked a great deal of foolish nonsense [illegible] away. Ah me!

Then he sailed—

"Oh! he sailed, oh! he sailed"

the same as Captain Kyd did.

Horace went to New York and not having been shipwrecked by the way, telegraphed or wrote to his beloved [illegible] the sultry month of August [illegible] period [illegible] October when the [illegible] change her garments [illegible] of November.

Alas [illegible] will so they say. She [illegible] all unknown to the healthy father [illegible] replied. Thus affairs progressed until Horace [illegible] last week that he was off for Texas right away [illegible] couldn't stop [illegible].

[illegible] made up her mind [illegible] most parts of the earth [illegible] the slave [illegible] Miss Mary on Saturday night last having habited herself becomingly deserted the palatial mansion on Clay street and casting behind her wealth, society and friends, sought the office of a gentleman on Broad street, whom she [illegible] pay for a ticket to New York. [illegible] property refused, and Miss Mary sought elsewhere and found the ready means.

At all events she procured passage on the cars and embarked on the 8 30 o'clock train, which carried her northward at the rate of about twenty or thirty miles an hour, if not as speedily as her heart desired. On the train between Richmond and Acquia Creek she was observed by the conductor to weep bitterly, and to whom she related her tale of woe and distress.

Her departure created, of course, a hub bub in the mansion on Clay street, and amid the wringing of hands and loud expressions of distress, the telegraph was invoked and parties sent in hot pursuit. It was surmised that young Ford, instead of going off to Texas right away as he announced, had put to New York, there to meet his Mary, and thither the detectives directed their steps.

The upshot of the matter is to make a long story short, that Miss Mary has been heard from, that she is now in Philadelphia, and that upon the whole there is a very sorry family history connected with the case, which is not within our province to reveal.

TREMENDOUS LAND SLIDE IN MAINE.

[From the Portland Argus, Nov 28.]

The people in the village of Cumberland Mills and vicinity, which is about five miles from this city, were startled about 5 o'clock yesterday morning by a rumbling noise and jarring of the earth, which they supposed to be an earthquake. Investigation, however, disclosed an immense land slide on the north bank of the Presumpscot river about one third of a mile below Cumberland Mills. The land sunk extends back from the river nearly half a mile in an oblong shape, and is some forty rods in width, embracing at least thirty acres. It fell from thirty to fifty feet, and the river was dammed up for more than an eighth of a mile. The land which sunk was for ten feet from the surface a light sandy loam, and below that blue clay. There was a light growth of scattering wood on the greater portion, and most of the trees are left standing erect or very nearly so notwithstanding their drop. The Cumberland paper mills were flooded to the first windows on the lower floor, entirely submerging all in the lower part of the mill, including of course the valuable machinery in the basement. Operations at the mills are necessarily suspended for a time, and three hundred operatives will be thrown out of employment. It was apparent that the convulsion was not occasioned by the undermining of the river. The sinking evidently commenced some distance away from that, and the bed of the river was pressed upward to the level of the surrounding land. An intelligent gentleman who carefully examined the scene theorizes that the long continued wet weather had softened the substratum of clay until it would not sustain the weight above. An occupied dwelling house narrowly escaped destruction, the slide extending to within some twenty rods of it. The water in the section overflowed apparently ceased to rise about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and no damage was apprehended by the rise of water above the upper dam at Cumberland Mills. It is difficult to approximate the amount of damage inflicted, but it cannot, it was thought, fall short of $100 000. The course of the river will be permanently changed, and it was contemplated to-day to put on a large force and cut a channel for it across Mr Raymond's interval land. The phenomenon occasioned a good deal of excitement, and hundreds of people visited the scene during the day from this city and the surrounding country. The affair is not entirely without precedent in this vicinity. Some fifteen years ago about twenty acres sank in a similar way a few miles from the scene of the present disaster. In this case, however, the damage was only to the land involved. The effect of the convulsion upon the river may be imagined from the fact that the fish of various kinds, pickerel, trout, smelt, &c., were picked up in large quantities on the adjacent lands. The sudden receding of the water after the overflow caused by the first crush left the finny tribe high and dry on terra firma. The scene is a wild one and presents the appearance of a grand convulsion of nature. It will be visited by thousands of people within the next few days.

The Moral Effect of Boots

A writer in Cassell's Magazine gossips about Bad Boots:

The influence of boots upon the mind is very different from that of any other garment. A man may have a shocking bad hat, but he forgets it; his coat may be threadbare, but his mind is not directed toward it; but we defy a man to stand upright in a pair of Blucher's with worn down heels, and we believe that it is just as difficult to feel morally upright in them. A sense of meanness possesses him, he feels that everybody is noticing them. He cannot look people straight in the face and feel upon the square with them. He feels the weakness of his foundation and he mistrusts the character of the superstructure that they support, however imposing in other respects.

A man shabby in his boots sometimes flatters himself that he carries off attention from them by the use of a splendid necktie, but this is a delusion and a snare. The boots are the key of the position, and we feel sure that no man ought to undertake any serious matter unless he stands up in a good sound pair of boots. A celebrated physiologist has said that if human actions could be searched into it would be found that the intestines of one man often influence the destinies of another. Doubtless this is a profound remark, but it applies to upper and nether soles as well as to digestion.

By way of argument, imagine the final charge of the Guards at Waterloo made in bad boots. It would have been all very well for the great Duke to have said, "Up Guards and at em!" but could they have got at them? And if they had failed and we had lost Waterloo, what next and next? But badinage apart, no one will feel inclined, we suppose, to deny the influence of the mind upon the body and vice versa. When boots are hopelessly gone shame seems to have departed also. What terribly bad boots we see crossing sweepers following their professions in! But these are put on sometimes to excite pity. We feel this and the effect is lost upon us. But is there a more piteous sight than a poor beggar with a boot on one foot and a shoe on the other? A man brought to this point of degradation must be demoralized beyond the hope of recovery. With women the moral influence of bad boots is not so great as with men, for the reason that they contrive not to show them, but the physical influence is far more serious. The writer, speaking from a long experience in the practice of a dispensary, where the poor mainly apply, can safely say that not a tithe of this class possess sound boots. Hidden under the petticoats they are all worn [illegible] until the feet are just upon the ground, and the wearer [illegible] from morning to night in wet weather in a state of sop.

This may seem a minor evil, but it is just the one that causes half the disease among poor women, whose constitutions render them far less able to bear exposure of this kind than the other sex. There are clubs and benefit societies of all kinds, but we cannot fancy an institution that would do more immediate and lasting good than a Good Boots Club for the benefit of women. Women ascend higher in the social scale, and find the same evil prevailing. Many [illegible] governesses and servants are shockingly shod. It is just the weak point in their dress which they can hide, and they invariably do it, whereas it lies at the foundation of their health and that of their children, and it should claim their first attention.

We laugh at the clattering wooden sabots of the French and German working classes, but in comparison with the flimsy, ill-made foot coverings our own poor indulge in, they are more healthy and lasting, but fashion, even with the very poor, is far more powerful, we fear, than considerations of health and service.

We have said enough to show that bad boots may be considered one of the social evils of the day worthy of recognition. It was the wish of one of the best French Kings that every poor man should have a fowl in his pot. If wishes had the power of fulfilling themselves, it would be a good wish that every poor woman had a sound pair of boots to her feet. If that were the case there would be far less disease, and half the dispensary doors in the town would be closed.

Under the laws of this country they are here safe in the pursuit of their work.

The whipping post is still among the cherished institutions of the State of Delaware. An old man 70 years of age was put to the torture of the lash for some petty offence, at New Castle, on Friday last, as well as half a dozen other offenders. The report of the case says that the punishment was "strictly in accordance with the laws of the State." So much the worse for the State. We are very glad that Delaware did not vote for Grant. We hope she will remain Democratic while she remains thus barbarous and semi savage.

What is Productive Industry?

With certain classes the conception prevails that Productive Industry is confined to those departments in which muscular force is mainly employed, and that in proportion as a man ceases to use physical power, substituting for it brain power, he becomes a non-producer. Nothing can be more false than this idea of labor, and nothing more degrading to laborers. Is a man a laborer in the same ratio as he approaches the stolidity of the ox or the inanity of the ass? This estimate is denounced in all the markets of the world where labor or the products thereof are sold.

The man who works only, or mainly, with his muscles is accounted of little commercial value, and if he keeps on in that way is destined to toil hard, fare miserably and die poor. By the very ordination of Nature there is no means for bettering his case. The glory of man consists in having brains, and if he will not bring this peculiar instrument into play he must expect to rank very near the brutes, and to subsist comparatively as they do.

Everybody understands the difference between skilled and unskilled labor and laborers. A mechanic, well taught and skillful in his trade, commands higher wages than a common drudge, and for the reason that he puts more intellect into his work. The foreman of a shop or factory receives larger compensation than an ordinary workman, because to his knowledge of how to work, and how it should be done, he superadds the faculty of direction and control. So the scale of remuneration goes on ascending, in exact [illegible] as brute force is discarded and brain force put in its place.

The conceptions of the rotundity of the earth, the rudder and the magnetic needle—what have they not done for external commerce? The alphabet, movable type, printing press, the cotton-gin, the spinning jenny, the steam engine, and the magnetic telegraph—what workers were they whose fertile brains evolved the precious contrivances? From their graves these master-spirits of the race do more productive work than all the living millions that now swarm in the populous cities and fill all the land; for ideas die not, but are indestructible as those souls [illegible] emanations they are.

Most of the Productive Industry of the world is to-day accomplished by machinery; that is to say, the productive forces of the United States and of all European nations are multiplied at least one thousand fold by the use of hands and fingers made of iron and steel. In some countries where modern [illegible] has received its greatest development, the productive power is more than ten [illegible] times what it would be with the [illegible] number of inhabitants without it.

[illegible] this view of things it is safe, as an [illegible] writer remarks, to affirm that all property [illegible] out of Nature by any appliance or [illegible] is the result of Productive Industry. Skillful hands are common in all industrial [illegible]. What are most rare, and at the [illegible] most necessary, are minds of such [illegible] and training as to be able to plan, to [illegible], to direct, and to invent. Such [illegible] are the [illegible] producing forces of the [illegible]

A. J.'s Figures.

The acting President has devoted the greater part of his late message to the work of showing that it costs more to conduct the Government now, and that taxation is therefore much greater, than before the rebellion. [illegible] in the message with an uncandid [illegible] and "damnable iteration," as [illegible] against Congress. There is an [illegible] tone of censure in the whole document, as if its author would say to the legislative department: "It is your fault that this state of [illegible] exists. You are oppressing the people [illegible] and squandering their money, when [illegible] the expenses of the Government ought [illegible] than they were ten years ago." He then points to the fact that the expenses of the Government for the present year will foot up $372,000,000; while the expenses for [illegible] were but $63,000,000, and with the air of a [illegible] demagogue who supposes that the [illegible] cannot detect the imposition, he triumphantly exclaims: "Behold the prodigality of the Radical Congress!"

Of course it would not have suited his purpose to infuse a little honesty into his statement by giving a short analysis of the present [illegible]. He might have relieved it of the dishonest coloring he has given it by simply stating that of the $372,000,000 now required for the purposes of Government, the sum of $130,000,000, or more than one-third of the whole amount is paid out as interest on the public debt; that over $24,000,000 have been paid during the year as pensions; that [illegible] to nearly a like amount have been paid; that over $25,000,000 worth of bonds have been [illegible] to the Pacific railroads; that the Post Office Department [illegible] has long been under control of his [illegible] adviser now costs the Government twice as much as it did a few years ago, the deficiencies for the present year alone amounting to upwards of $7,000,000; that we have bought and paid for Alaska; that the expenses of the civil and diplomatic service under his own eminent management are many millions larger than they were under Lincoln or any former President. He might have gone through the whole list in this way, and shown how it happens that the present expenditures of the Government are so large. In this way he could have accounted to the people for their $372,000,000. But it did not suit his purpose to make such a statement. He chose rather to present the whole sum of expenditures in bulk, and by mean insinuations charge Congress with reckless extravagance. The Government now pays out twice as much money annually as interest on the public debt as it cost to carry on the whole machinery of Government ten years ago; and a President of the United States makes this fact the basis of a demagogical assault on the Republican party! This would be barely tolerable in a county Democratic editor, or a cross roads Democratic orator; but when it emanates from the man who stands at the head of the nation it becomes contemptible twaddle which degrades every intelligent and candid American citizen.

Information Furnished.—The Herald wants to know whereabouts in the Constitution we find the power which Congress has exercised in enacting the reconstruction laws. It is a very short story. The Constitution declares that the United States shall guarantee to each State a republican form of government; the Supreme Court has decided that this power rests with Congress, and we have the eminent authority of Andrew Johnson to prove that the rebellion deprived the insurrectionary States of all civil government. It therefore became the duty of Congress to provide for the re-organization of those State governments on such terms and conditions as the circumstances seemed to demand. This has been done, and the people of the whole country, by tremendous majorities, have declared that Congress acted wisely and well. And the Herald seems very dull not to understand this state of things. It is ludicrous to see that paper going on with its denunciations of the "Rump Congress," and to hear it talking about the "infamy of reconstruction" after the whole question has been settled by such an overwhelming popular majority.

An Administration "Organ." A short time ago the telegraph reported that H. J. Raymond and Thurlow Weed were negotiating for the purchase of the Washington Intelligencer with a view of making it Grant's organ. The Democratic quid-nuncs snapped up this trifling report as a sweet morsel, and our neighbor of the Herald made it the subject of a leading editorial, designed to show that Grant was a "conservative" and likely to come out a full blown Democrat. But the New York Times, Raymond's paper, destroys all these fine theories by flatly contradicting the report. It says: "So far as Mr. Raymond is concerned, it is a fabrication pure and simple. As for Mr. Weed, we feel warranted in making a denial equally broad and quite as explicit. The whole statement is not only false but absurd and ridiculous. Neither of the gentlemen named has the slightest disposition to be anybody's 'organ.'"

To be Investigated.—A petition has been sent to Congress from New York praying for the appointment of a special committee to investigate the election frauds lately perpetrated in that State. This no doubt is in conformity with the resolve of the Republicans to show that the electoral vote of New York is so tainted with fraud as to compel its rejection. Forty-eight counties in that State give larger gains to Grant on Lincoln's vote than Seymour has made on McClellan's vote. But the five counties containing the city and its suburbs give Seymour a net gain over McClellan's vote of 30,119. In all but these five counties Gen. Grant has a net gain on Lincoln's majority over Seymour of more than 10,000. These facts point out the field for investigation into election frauds.

New York.—The Albany Journal says: "It is no honor to John T. Hoffman that he floats into the Executive Chair on the scum of New York city. He is in the hands of the foulest of mortals. Mr. Griswold reposes in the hearts of four-fifths of the population of the State, outside of its Botany Bay precincts.

Idaho.—The Legislature of this Territory is again in session. As it is quite as Democratic as former ones we may expect soon to hear the usual imprecations upon "Yamhill."

STATE ITEMS.

Several clergymen of the Christian Church will hold a protracted meeting in Salem, beginning to-day, the 17th.

The Unionist mentions a rumor that Beriah Brown is about to start a paper in Salem with the material now used for publishing the Polk County Signal.

The Roseburg paper says: Hon. S. F. Chadwick left this place last Wednesday, "bound for Washington." It was necessary for Chad. to go. However, Seymour will not need a "cabinet," but needs admirers.

The Ensign says: The Incorporation of Roseburg was defeated. Through the chicanery of some one the bill did not reach here in time for a vote to be taken as required by the bill. We must now wait two years.

The Salem paper says: Yesterday about half of the merchants in town, awoke to the knowledge that they had been violating the Internal Revenue law, and that the informant had sworn out a complaint, to recover the fines assessible, in cases where the law is violated. These cases created quite a stir among the business men, as it is the first intimation that they have had that the law was being violated.

The Eugene Journal says: A few days ago the surveyors of the East Side Railroad Company accompanied by Mr. S. Ellsworth of this place, went out to the range of hills on the South of town to see if a pass could be found for the railroad without having to get up where the air is too light. Mr. Ellsworth informs us that there is no possibility of going over the hill, but thinks it is quite likely that a tunnel can be made through the hill, as it is a very narrow ridge, with probably as little expense as the road could be made any other place. A survey will be made soon and the matter more thoroughly investigated.

The Yreka Journal says: The surveying party establishing the California and Oregon boundary line, have passed Cole's Mountain House, and are now at Hungry Creek. The line passes just a quarter of a mile above the lower Cole's, which has always been in dispute, though claimed in this State, being about eight miles from Cottonwood. All of Cole's ranch is in California, and Sterling's is just over the line on the Oregon side. It is expected that Hungry Creek is in this State, and Grouse Creek undoubtedly in Oregon. The surveying party intend making the line through to the coast this winter, if they can possibly get through. The boundary line is marked on the stage road by a monument about a quarter of a mile above Cole's house on an unfenced piece of land between Cole's and Sterling's.

Respecting Holladay's intentions as to railroad matters, J. B. Underwood writes as follows from San Francisco, Nov. 29: "Ben Holladay is in the city, and told two very prominent men, who are friends of mine, that he did not propose to cross the Willamette river at all and was not going to do it—that at most, he would run a branch to Corvallis only on condition that the people would raise money to build a bridge, but would not build any road from Corvallis to Eugene—and in fact, said he was not going to Eugene City at all, as it was some three or four miles out of his line. This was said by Mr. H., in conversation with gentlemen of standing and veracity and with the greatest candor on his part, and my informants say that he spoke his real sentiments. You are at liberty to use this letter, for every word of it can be substantiated, and I will furnish the proof if required."

Wine Sale.—There was a great sale of wines belonging to the estate of Count Duchatre, recently at Chateau-Lafitte, in France. The attendance was exceedingly large, and comprised the principal wine merchants, gourmets of France, proprietors of the great Paris restaurants, agents from many members of the aristocracy and finance of France and abroad, and several foreign dealers. The dates of the wines ranged from 1797 to 1864, and the competition was naturally great, such a collection never having before been offered for sale. The minimum price was 7 francs the bottle for the growths of 1862 and 1863, and the highest 121 francs, for that of 1811, the year of the comet. The wine of 1797 brought 12 francs, and that of 1798, 16 francs.

Some of the Democratic journals are already beginning to whine over the strong probability that the Forty-first Congress will unseat all Congressmen elected at the South under a reign of terror. The Louisiana election was a farce only saved from being a tragedy by the Republicans staying away from the polls. None of the members from that State should be allowed to take their seats, nor should the seats be given to the Republican candidates. The best way to decide the matter will be to hold another election after the fourth of March, when, under the protection of Phil. Sheridan, or some other honest soldier, the people can express their real sentiments.

Significant.—General Grant's report deprecates any present reduction of the regular army, because the condition of the Southern States and the Indian country is likely to need all the forces now enlisted in the service. "The condition of the Southern States" will require military. This may be a gratifying intimation for the Secesh Democracy who have been claiming Gen. Grant as a Conservative. Before 1872 we fear the Democracy will call General Grant a Radical.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO DECEMBER 16.

The Army Reunion.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—The grand reunion of army officers took place at the Opera House to-night, which was crowded to its utmost capacity. Generals Grant, Thomas, Sherman, Schofield and many other distinguished officers, occupied the stage. General Thomas presided, making brief remarks upon calling the meeting to order. General Sherman delivered the address of welcome. General W. H. Belknap delivered the oration for the army of Tennessee; General Charles Croft for the army of Cumberland; General J. D. Cox for the army of Ohio, and General Wm Cogswell for the army of Georgia. Each army held separate gatherings to-day for social intercourse. Great crowds of people thronged around each distinguished hero. Everything thus far has gone off with great satisfaction.

Congressional.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Mr. Sumner, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported a joint resolution tendering sympathy to the people of Spain.

Mr. Cattell, from the Committee on Finances, reported a resolution disapproving and condemning that portion of the President's Message relating to the liquidation of the national debt. Mr. McCrery objected to its consideration and the resolution went over.

Mr. Williams' bill repealing the prohibition against the organization of the militia in the rebel States, was taken up and gave rise to considerable debate, Messrs. Wilson, Fessenden and Conkling speaking in favor and Hendricks against. Edmunds moved to amend by continuing prohibition in Virginia, Mississippi and Texas. The bill was further debated by Messrs. Rice and Warner in favor, and Messrs. Buckalew and Davis in opposition.

Mr. Edmunds' amendment was finally adopted and passed.

Julian, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported back the Senate bill granting lands in California to construct a railroad and telegraph from Vallejo to Honolulu. Ordered printed and recommitted.

After disposing of considerable miscellaneous business, the House went into Committee of the Whole and proceeded to discuss the tariff bill.

Mr. Brooks took the floor, being entitled to it when the bill was up at last session, and proceeded to declare that corrupt measures had been used by the iron and steel men to carry the elections of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Maine. Then Mr. Brooks spoke in the same connection of Wm. E. Dodge, and the measures by which he obtained Brooks' seat in Congress, when the Speaker stated that he was unable to see the point of Brooks' remarks. Mr. Brooks then applied himself to the regular discussion of the tariff bill, after which the committee rose, and immediately Moorhead moved again to go into committee, which was agreed to, when the House devoted its attentions to that portion of the bill relating to the duties on copper. Several amendments were offered, but not disposed of when the House adjourned.

Robbery at Cheyenne.

Cheyenne, Dec. 16.—J. T. White, head clerk in the office of the Union Pacific Railroad Co., was robbed of nine thousand dollars last night while on his way from the depot to Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office. The robbery was perpetrated by three men who held a pistol to White's head and walked him a half mile out on the prairie, and tied his hands behind him. The robbers were not disguised.

Purchase of Samana Bay.

New York, Dec. 16.—The Herald's special states that the Samana Bay purchase has been completed. A company of capitalists have secured from the Dominican Government a perpetual lease of the bay and peninsula, and pay a large sum down to secure the bargain. It is understood that the United States will proceed to establish a naval station there as soon as the Dominicans give possession to the New York lessees.

Fire in Charleston.

Charleston, Dec. 16.—The building on the corner of Main and Columbia street known as the Grelim was burned yesterday; loss, $500,000. Five firemen were killed by the falling of a wall. Several others were seriously if not mortally injured.

From Cuba.

Havana, Dec. 16.—The government is actively searching for political offenders. Many arrests have been made in this city. Reinforcements have been sent to the interior. The steamer Ashila has arrived with the first detachment of troops from Spain. Two transports are expected to-morrow with 2,000 men. Conflicting rumors are in circulation relative to the late military operations in the interior. The Spaniards say that the Government troops suffered defeat, but their assertions are not confirmed by the reports from the interior.

A correspondent of the New York Times at Bogota reports the character of the war as changing. The Spanish troops are disgusted with the lenient policy of the Government in pardoning. The rebels are confidently expecting disturbances in Spain which will prevent the sending of reinforcements. At the same time the planters were more inclined to secure the sugar crop than to take part in the conflict.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Vienna, Dec. 15.—A Constantinople dispatch says the Greek Minister and several Greek residents have left. A dispatch from Athens says the Turkish Minister has left the city. The people made enthusiastic demonstrations before the American, English, Prussian and Russian embassadors. The Correspondence this afternoon publishes a dispatch which it says had been received from Greek sources stating that the Greek government rejects the summons of the Sultan, amid popular excitement.

London, Dec. 15.—The members of the House of Commons attended at the bar of the House of Lords to-day, when a brief speech from the Queen was read, as follows: "Since the time when her Majesty deemed it right to call you together for the consideration of many grave and important matters, several vacancies have occurred in the House of Commons, owing to the acceptance of office from the crown by members of the House, and therefore her Majesty's pleasure is that the opportunity be given to issue writs to supply the vacancies so occasioned, and that after suitable recess you may proceed to the consideration of such matters as will then be laid before you." At the conclusion of the reading the Commons withdrew to their chamber. The House of Lords then adjourned to the 11th of February. The Commons also adjourned to meet December 29th.

John Bright has issued an address to his constituents. He says: "I have accepted office from Gladstone's administration, but must obtain your sanction. I trust the confidence that you have so long placed in me will not be withdrawn."

The new Ministry has decided to recall the Earl of Mayo from India and retain Sir John Lawrence as Viceroy till the end of the year, at the expiration of which time the Marquis of Salisbury will be appointed to that post.

Memorials to the Queen, asking for the release of the Fenians imprisoned in various parts of the country, were circulated and extensively signed at all the Catholic churches on Sunday.

London, Dec. 15.—Advices from the west coast of Africa report that the Spanish inhabitants of Fernando Po are holding a jubilee over the downfall of the Spanish Bourbons.

New York, Dec. 16.—The Herald's London special says it is reported that the representatives of France and England at Vienna, have been instructed to represent to the Austrian Government that dangers may result to the peace of Europe from its attitude on the return question. The recall of the Austrian Ambassador at Constantinople has been the result of their representation.

The Herald's Madrid special says that matters are now perfectly tranquil. The Government recognizes the congratulations of the Provinces on the re-establishment of law and order at Cadiz.

The Herald's special from Edenbury says that orders have been received from the Prussian Government for the completion of permanent fortifications at Sonderburg and Duppel.

The Herald's special from Florence says that at a popular meeting held here it was resolved to send a deputation to the Senate and Chamber of Deputies, with the prayers requesting the intervention of the Italian government to save the lives of Aganoga and Luesia, who are condemned to death in Rome.

Great animosity exists in Rome between the Italian and foreign born troops.

Two more trials are to take place in Rome next week. The defendants will probably be sentenced to death.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

San Francisco, Dec. 16.—The Genessee Flouring Mill was partially destroyed by fire to-day. Loss, $15,000 or $20,000. The machinery is uninjured. The mill was fully insured.

A runaway horse with a buggy, ran through Kearny street this afternoon, knocking down and severely injuring two men and a child. One of them, a blind man, is reported to be fatally injured.

The detectives have discovered that Captain Carlton was not murdered. He fell through a man trap and struck his head and struck on a rock which was buried below.

The work of cleaning the sewers of the city is being prosecuted with diligence by the Health Commissioner.

The citizens have decided upon recommending the constitution of the Vaccine Board.

CHARITY.—A large class of people professing to be virtuous, on many occasions forget that to be charitable to a fellow being is the least virtue a person can possess. It is not always by giving money to the poor or assisting the afflicted that a person can only show their charity. A good advice is often better than money, for instance. Meeting a person who wishes to purchase a common or fine suit of clothes or any other article in the Clothing or Dry Goods line, is it not a charitable act toward that person to recommend them to go to Kohn & Fishel, you being certain that at that House they can purchase to the lowest rates and receive good goods, and where the most particular can be satisfied?

SHERIFF'S SALE.—BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION and Order of Sale, issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County, to me directed, in favor of C. B. Comstock & Co., plaintiffs, and J. T. Grow et al, defendants, for the sum of $650 U. S. gold coin, commanding me to make sale of the property therein described, to wit: That part of James Johns' Donation Claim, situate in Multnomah County, bounded as follows, to wit: Commencing at a corner on the bank of the Willamette river, at the mouth of a ditch below James Johns' house, and running thence easterly to the east line of James Johns' claim to a corner of Sec. 2, and the corner of lots sold by said Johns to D. S. Southmay, deceased; thence along said line between Southmay's land and said James Johns' land north to a corner on said line, between James Johns' and J. Byer's land; thence west or nearly so along said Byer's line to the bank of Willamette river; thence south along said river bank to the place of beginning, containing 100 acres, more or less; and on Thursday, the 14th day of January, 1868, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M., in front of the Court-house door, in the city of Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon, I will sell the same at public auction, to the highest bidder therefor in U. S. gold coin.

I WILL HOLD MY ANNUAL CARNIVAL

DURING THE COMING FESTIVAL!

THAT ALL MAY OBSERVE

The Christmas and New Year's HOLIDAYS!

I herewith issue my Annual PROCLAMATION!!!

Dear Parents and Children! once more I appear,
And wish you good Christmas, and Happy New Year!
I've brought you glad tidings—I've opened once more!
My Budget of Wonders—at McCormick's Book Store!
I've spread out my treasures, so give me a call
And view the nice GIFTS I've procured for you all.
My Presents this year were conveyed to the town,
By Mercer's new clipper, the swift Sallie Brown.
The stock's most complete! The assortment comprises
Curiosities rare, of all shapes and all sizes!
I've Dollies that talk—I've babies that dance,
(Some, very handsome, I purchased in France.)
I've Fish that can swim—I've Roosters who strive
To crow so like nature, you'd think they're alive!
I've Guns, and I've Cannon—I've neat Savings Banks,
And Soldiers that look very neat when in ranks!
I've Puzzles, and Pistols. Then Christmas to keep,
I've Candles, Reflectors, and Brackets—a heap!
I've beautiful Baskets, (a nice gift for Ma,)
And handsome Cigar Stands—just suited for Pa!
While there's nothing so welcome to uncle or aunt,
As a beautiful portrait of President Grant!
I've Work Boxes—handsome as ever were made—
With [illegible] utensils all nicely arrayed.
I've nice setts of China—I've Vases of Flowers,
And Musical Boxes that play at all hours.
I've Furniture, Villages, Steamboats, and [illegible],
That gay little joker, called Jack-in-the-Box!
I've Tables, and Dressers, for China or delf,
I've nice Solitaire, that you play by yourself!
I've new Magic Lanterns—a beautiful sight
To make all good children merry at night.
For girls at school I've a nice Skipping Rope,
And for family fun I've the new Zoetrope!
I've Games that instruct, and Books that amuse,
For Gifts to good people I never refuse.
In fine, I've got all that each heart could desire,
To name them all over your patience I'd tire;
But call on me early, or call on me late,
I'll visit your houses all over this State—
In Washington's clime—up in young [illegible]
I'm sure to find children wherever I go;
I've travelled for years—you all must remember
I'll be Sixty-nine at the end of December.
My hair is all white, and my body doth tend
To the latest [illegible]—the new Grecian bend!
On Christmas Eve night, as in bed you all sleep,
With pack on my back down each chimney I'll creep;
I'll lay out my Presents, but oh! 'twill be shocking,
Should I find a hole in any one's stocking!
So, for HOLIDAY GOODS—for Dolls sweet as honey,
Go to McCORMICK'S—you'll save half your money!
Nice Presents or Gifts—any kind you require,
You'll find at the "FRANKLIN"—(the number enquire.)
On FRONT STREET, Near Alder—105,
In fact you can't miss it—and when you arrive,
Don't ask goods at cost, for you'll find, if you try,
That goods sold "at cost" always cost very high!
But to purchasers all, this maxim I'd give:
Live well yourself, and thus let others live!

{L. S.} Given at my Palace, in Wonderland, this 7th day of the Twelfth month, being the second year of the reign of the third George, in the land of Webfoot.

MATTERS UP THE COLUMBIA.—We collate the [illegible] from the Walla Walla Statesman of the 11th: [illegible] just up from below, inform us that the water [illegible] is very low, and even if there is no freeze up [illegible] must soon stop running from inability to get [illegible] rapids at the present low stage of water.... Dad [illegible] packer, with a train of 75 animals, arrived at [illegible] in the early part of the week, through in 13 [illegible] Bear Gulch. He reports very little snow on [illegible]. Business at Blackfoot was dull. A good [illegible] is expected in the spring to the new mines [illegible] country.... A subscription paper is being [illegible] for the purpose of raising money to test the [illegible] of the tax imposed by the authorities of Idaho and [illegible] upon teamsters and packers who have already [illegible] either in Washington Territory or Oregon. [illegible] is clearly illegal, but no single individual has [illegible] in testing the law, and so the imposition [illegible] itted to. It is now proposed to make up a [illegible] and with the money that may be subscribed [illegible] thoroughly adjudicated.... Mr Conlisk, [illegible], is now engaged in putting up the nec[illegible] for the manufacture of soap and candles [illegible] Walla, and in the course of a week or two will [illegible] to commence operation. This factory will afford [illegible] for the fat and grease that has heretofore been [illegible] to go to waste, thus encouraging habits of econo[illegible] and housekeepers generally will bear this [illegible] mind, and save their surplus fat and grease. Mr. [illegible], when he gets his factory under way, expects to [illegible] soap and candles sufficient to supply the [illegible], and also to meet any possible demand.... A miner just down from Perry Creek [illegible] from the new diggings. In following up [illegible] gold is found to be much coarser than at [illegible] the original discovery was made. All the [illegible] laid over for the winter, but many of the [illegible] to comply with the mining laws, and [illegible] the ground is liable to be jumped. A [illegible], under the protection of the Gold [illegible], had attempted to gain a lodgment in the [illegible] but were driven out by the miners. The [illegible] as far as prospected showed a yield of an ounce a [illegible] hand, but many of the claims will pay much [illegible] this. Some two hundred men will winter in [illegible]. The Hudson Bay Company has a well stocked [illegible] the mines. Three or four traders with full stocks [illegible] and so there were no apprehensions of a [illegible]. The discovery was made too late [illegible] to ascertain with any certainty the extent [illegible], but the belief is that the camp will be a [illegible], numbering probably two thousand miners. A [illegible] of Montanaians are wintering in the Bit[illegible] Valley, preparatory to making an early start for the spring.

[illegible] EXPENSES."—The County Commis[illegible] at the late term of the court, furnished us an [illegible] of how to "reduce expenses," which we [illegible] of being generally imitated. For in[illegible] we informed that a bill for the support of an [illegible] one month; another for something else, 90 [illegible] for $8 for a book which the law pro[illegible] kept, were talked over one entire day, and [illegible] agreed to pay them, almost or[illegible] have done at once. The expense of [illegible] court is about $25 per day. The three bills [illegible]. An ordinary man would have dis[illegible] in thirty minutes, making due allowance [illegible], and then would have been ready to pro[illegible] other business. Numerous other bills were [illegible] over, talked against, talked about, for [illegible] then finally allowed or rejected or deferred [illegible] for more talk and more higgling. Thus [illegible] sat and talked and higgled for a whole [illegible] the county at the rate of about $26 a day, [illegible] man, not trouble with "retrench[illegible] have dispatched the business in two and a [illegible] days. This is, of course, "reducing the [illegible] of the county were in straightened cir[illegible] "retrenchment" would not mate[illegible] the days of bankruptcy.

[illegible].—The city is just now infested with [illegible] of fellows who ought to be somewhere [illegible] they would be less able to do mischief. [illegible] but the morning shows evidences [illegible] have been around, plying the only [illegible] they seem to have. During Tuesday night [illegible] of DeLashmutt's grocery store was [illegible] for more mall[illegible] mischief. The [illegible] of a shop next door was broken [illegible] other [illegible] been brought to our [illegible] acme of [illegible] deadly bullet. Our people cannot [illegible] thing, and they ought not to be com[illegible] to these frequent outrages. Let the [illegible] out for squalls.

[illegible] day or two ago we published an item fur[illegible] concerning the steamers Success [illegible] not read the item as carefully, per[illegible] have done before handing it to the [illegible] that it contained matter of[illegible]. This was certainly not in[illegible] to do with the strifes or jeal[illegible] and do not in[illegible]. We are now in[illegible] of both the two boats was no [illegible] the Success was not [illegible] in any other way injured. Thus is [illegible], and this reparation being done everything is lovely again.

[illegible]—We are pleased to learn that the [illegible] Mr. J. P. Walker, is so nearly rebuilt as [illegible] be started on Friday and it is expected that [illegible] will be running within the next [illegible]. Mr. Walker has risen grandly out of the [illegible] which is a credit to the city, with [illegible] than even that destroyed by the fire [illegible] with business prospects which must be [illegible] to him and his many friends. Long live [illegible] men of energy and perseverance as Mr. [illegible]

[illegible]—The bark Occident arrived [illegible] yesterday, in tow of the [illegible] is a list of her cargo [illegible]: H & S, [illegible]; H & C, 50 cans coal oil; diamond S, [illegible] P, 300 cases coal oil; Hodge [illegible] bxs glass; F L W, [illegible]; E D & [illegible]; A & L, 364 [illegible]; A & L, 125 boxes [illegible] 106 pkgs; W & L, 13 pkgs; W & [illegible] 15 bales oakum, no mark; Johnson & [illegible] pkgs; H & D, 12 pkgs; M S, 10 cases [illegible] 200 bbls lime; O & K, 32 kegs syrup; W W [illegible]

[illegible] BAR.—Capt. [illegible], of the bark Oc[illegible] that while he was standing on and off the [illegible] large full-rigged ship doing the same thing. Capt. Scholl, of the Active, reports seeing [illegible] when he came in. Neither of [illegible] to the strange ship to speak to [illegible]. No such vessel is expected here, and [illegible] as to what can be the cause of [illegible] so long about the bar.

[illegible].—There will be a meeting of the [illegible] of the Fire Department at the Council [illegible] evening. The purpose of the meeting is to [illegible] result of the recent election for Chief and As[illegible] of the Department. There being a tie [illegible] Jacob Kuenig and T. Johnson for the [illegible], it devolves upon the Board of Dele[illegible] which of them shall be First and which [illegible] Engineer.

[illegible].—The Bates Company did not [illegible] on Tuesday morning as was announced, [illegible] of the severe illness of Mr. Bates. He is [illegible], however, and it is the intention of the [illegible] to go up to-day and appear at Griswold's Theater [illegible] night. The play for that occasion will be [illegible] great tragedy of Othello, which the com[illegible] twice here with flattering success.

[illegible].—Fortunately for everybody, we are not [illegible] experience any more of the "heavy dew" stage [illegible] in the Wallamet. The late rains have swollen [illegible] to a very convenient boating depth; and it [illegible] be possible that it will again be low enough [illegible] navigation. The large accumulations of pro[illegible] the river, will very soon now begin to move [illegible] to the relief of all hands.

[illegible]ONAL.—Among the passengers who will depart this [illegible] on board the Active, are Messrs. P. O. Sullivan [illegible] C. Whitson of Dallas, Polk county, who are going [illegible] tour of the Sound country. Mr. Sullivan, we [illegible] goes partly on business, while Mr. Whitson will [illegible] the trip with a view to ascertaining the advantages [illegible] of removing to that country. We wish them [illegible] voyage.

[illegible] TAX.—The time during which the school tax [illegible] No. 1, of this county, may be paid without [illegible] very nearly expired. On and after the 20th Mr. [illegible] will proceed to collect by distraint and sale of [illegible]. At the close of the term of the schools the [illegible] in immediate want of money; hence no delay [illegible] to tax payers.

[illegible] AT HILLSBORO.—Mr. Jamison informs us [illegible] nights since, a burglar broke into the store of [illegible] Failing & Kellogg at Hillsboro, and stole a dol[illegible] half which he found in the till, and a suit of [illegible]. His purpose seemed to be to get money and not [illegible], though he seemed to have no objection to im[illegible] personal appearance.

[illegible] J. J. Hoffman, City Recorder, filed his res[illegible] of the office of Recorder, with the Auditor, last [illegible], there being no meeting of the Council. The [illegible] is to take effect on Thursday the 24th—one [illegible] to-day. We suppose there will now be a [illegible] among the aspirants to the place about to [illegible]

[illegible] COUNCIL.—There was no business transacted [illegible] Council last evening for the want of a [illegible]. There were present, his Honor Mayor Boyd, [illegible], Breck, Hallock and Porter. Ab[illegible] Burch, Cree, Hopkins and Ripley.

[illegible] WEATHER DOWN THE RIVER.—Capt. Rogers who [illegible] day as pilot of the Occident, informs us [illegible] days up to Tuesday wind had been [illegible] constant gale from the southeast. This [illegible] cause of the detention of the Occident.

[illegible].—An insane man from Boise was taken to the [illegible] East Portland yesterday morning. He was [illegible] in charge of Mr. Charles May.

[illegible] raft of logs was towed up yesterday by [illegible] Wolfnot, for the upper mills. They were ob[illegible] the Columbia.

[illegible].—The sailing of the steamer Active [illegible] on account of the weather until Friday [illegible] o'clock.

[illegible].—The steamer Continental [illegible] yesterday, for Victoria and [illegible]

GONE TO THE PENITENTIARY.—Sheriff Kleber started yesterday morning for Salem, having in charge Charles Bertram, sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary for manslaughter, and Geo. Morehead, sentenced for two years for larceny.

CHRISTMAS PARTY.—The proprietors of the What Cheer House will give a dancing party to their guests and friends on Christmas night.

One day while promenading the streets of the town,
With a very poor chapeau surmounting my crown,
I met an old friend whom my taste did not flatter,
For he asked me indignantly—"Who is your Hatter?"

"My good friend," I answered, "of such I have none;
'Tis long since I made the acquaintance of one;
My head gear, I know, is all going to seed,
But I'll visit your Hatter, if you'll take the lead."

"Agreed!" he replied, so we sauntered along,
And making our way through the gay, busy throng,
Each puffing in silence a fragrant cigar,
We stopped at the Corner—at MUESSDORFFER'S Bazaar!

We found the Emporium of Fashion well stored
With Hats and Caps, fit for a lord!
I was speedily suited, in price, fit and style,
And observed to my friend, with a satisfied smile:
"Your judgment in this as in most other matters,
Is unerring, for MUESSDORFFER'S the Hatter of Hatters!"

Let the leader of Fashion discourse as he may,
And the Hatter whatever he pleases can say,
But Corner Morrison and Front streets always for me!
For MUESSDORFFER, the Hatter of Portland is he!

HATS! HATS! HATS!
FOR EVERYBODY!
Are now to be found at MUESSDORFFER'S New Hat Store, Corner Morrison and Front streets; which will be OPENED TO-DAY, Dec. 17th.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—Mrs. Levy has just received, per steamer "Ajax," an elegant lot of Double and Single real Broche Shawls; Velvet Circulars, Astrikan Cloth Cloaks, etc. etc.

GRACEFUL AND PLEASING.—Those new and beautiful styles of Parlor Suites, now so fashionable at the East. Can be seen at Hurgren & Shindler's. Also, many rare articles of ornament and use, for the parlor and the house.

NIGHT SCHOOL.—Mr. Fitzgerald has opened a Night School in the schoolhouse (up stairs) near the Catholic Church. For Terms—See the Teacher.

"SPALDING'S GLUE" has become a household word.

A NOTICEABLE FACT.—That one way of appealing to a man's reason is through his eye. In these busy times men are so deeply immersed in the conduct of magnificent projects, that they forget all about the condition of their systems, and hence it is that the Proprietors of the PLANTATION BITTERS, which cures Dyspepsia, regulates the Blood, improves the tone of the Stomach, regulates the Bowels, and, indeed, invigorates the whole inner man, are so active in advertising. In fact, advertisements are only sky-rockets sent up to attract attention to a really good article.

HELP OR WE PERISH.—This is what neglected teeth would say if they could remonstrate with their owners; and mark this, the teeth cannot perish or become black or yellow if the SOZODONT is used daily.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees [illegible] the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

WOLFE'S
CELEBRATED
AROMATIC
SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.
TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON:
I BEG LEAVE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of Oregon to my celebrated AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, a medicinal Diet Drink of eminently salutary qualities manufactured by myself, exclusively at my factory at Schiedam, in Holland.
In Gravel, Gout and Rheumatism, in Obstruct[illegible] of the Bladder and Kidneys, its efforts are prompt, [illegible], and invariably reliable.
It is now some twenty years since the Proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over 3,000 letters from physi[illegible], endorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.
It is made from barley of the finest quality [illegible] with great care from the products of the most [illegible] grain-growing districts, is flavored with the [illegible] of the aromatic juniper berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.
As a means of preventing and correcting [illegible] ble and often dangerous effects produced on [illegible] and bowels by a change of water—a visitation [illegible] travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimate[illegible] peculiarly liable—the
SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS
Will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys [illegible] of the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most [illegible] guished members of the medical profession.
It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.
Are you WEAK, DEBILITATED, NERVOUS? Is your sleep disturbed? Do you have palpitation of the heart or an inclination to melancholy? Di[illegible] of such nature require a prompt DIURETIC, which will be found in Cheap Telegraph System.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

In Europe the governments are purchasing and taking possession and control of the telegraph wires, and operating them in connection with their Post Office system. The Government of Great Britain, after a long discussion in Parliament was authorized, in July last, to buy every line of telegraph in the United Kingdom. The operation of these will shortly be in the hands of the British Post Office Department as completely as the delivery of letters. The proposed tariff of charges is one English shilling for a message of twenty words, including date, address and signature, and half a penny for each additional word, for all distances within three kingdoms; the messages, when transmitted, to be delivered by the letter carriers free of any additional charge. To the press it is proposed to make a liberal discount on the rate per word for news reports.

The reduction is more than three-fourths of the old rates charged by the companies, but it is believed that the increase of messages will justify cheap telegrams, just as the reduction of postage on letters resulted in larger profits to the government than the high rates yielded.

The proposition to have our Post Office Department purchase the wires and undertake the transmission of telegrams at cheap rates has already been broached in Congress, and bills for that purpose been drafted and printed. But there are difficulties in the way, and no one has yet satisfactorily shown how they are to be overcome. Senator Ramsey's scheme seems to be the most favorable and suitable for this country. His plan unlike the European system, in which the government takes the place of the company and [illegible] the wires is to contract with "telegraph companies" to undertake to do what the European plan entrusts to the government. His bill authorizes the Postmaster General to receive bids from any telegraph company for the transmission of messages, received through the Post Office, to all cities and towns in the United States of 2,000 inhabitants and over, and to all towns and villages on the line of the telegraph where stations may be established. The contract for this service to be given for a term of years to the lowest and best bidders.

All [illegible] ges entrusted to the Post Office for transmission are to be delivered by the [illegible] belonging to the Post Office, just as [illegible] delivered; the telegraph company is to have nothing to do except to receive the [illegible] from the Postmaster, transmit them to their destination, and deliver them to the P[illegible] of the town or station where [illegible].

The tariff for transmitting and delivering [illegible], it is proposed, shall not exceed twenty-five cents, including five cents postage, for each message of twenty words, including [illegible] address and signature, for every five hundred miles or less distance—five cents for each added five words. It is also proposed to [illegible] ges received at the Post Offices and [illegible] boxes, and delivered free.

The charges are, therefore, one cent a word for any distance less than 500 miles; two cents a word for all distances over 500 and under 1,000 miles; three cents for all distances over 1,000 and under 1,500 miles; four cents for all distances over 1,500 and under 2,000 miles and five cents per word for all distances over 2,000; in addition to which there must be a five [illegible] postal stamp attached to each message, [illegible] cents of which make whole the [illegible] receipts against loss from sub[illegible] of [illegible], and the remaining two [illegible] pay the expense of delivering the [illegible] to the person addressed. The date, [illegible] and signature of a message will [illegible] about ten words. A message of [illegible] words, only leaves ten words for [illegible] to the receiver; but a message of [illegible] forty, and of a hundred [illegible] ninety, in which to state the [illegible] of the sender. The minimum [illegible] for a message from Chicago to New [illegible], Baltimore, Washington, [illegible] would be forty-five cents, [illegible] a word for the twenty words [illegible], including date, address and signature and the five cent postal stamp. The [illegible] this rate and what is now [illegible] be astonishing to those having [illegible] the wires. To send a message to [illegible] from Chicago would cost five [illegible] word, or one dollar, instead of some [illegible] that amount, now, charged. It is [illegible] that if Senator Ramsey's scheme [illegible] favor with Congress, it will be so modified as to have it not to exceed three rates per [illegible] still, but two rates, viz., one [illegible] word for all distances under 1,000 [illegible] in any direction, and two cents for all [illegible] over 1,000 miles.

We [illegible] prefer Senator Ramsey's [illegible] to the European, which obliges the government to purchase all the telegraph property in the country at an enormous cost, and [illegible] the [illegible] with its own employees. It [illegible] on the same principle precisely on [illegible] mails are carried for the government, by contract with common carriers. [illegible] of the government buying the railroads, [illegible] and stage lines to convey [illegible], it hires the owners thereof to do it. So the government could contract with all [illegible] telegraph companies on the [illegible] to transmit over the wires, [illegible] own operators and instruments, [illegible] in the Post Office buildings owned or [illegible] by the government, all the messages [illegible] Postmasters might offer to them. It is [illegible] that there would be an enormous saving to the telegraph companies in [illegible], clerk hire, cost of delivery, and [illegible]. The postal telegraph companies would also have the free use of all the [illegible] and means of transportation to [illegible] their wires, and in a word, of the business facilities of the Post Office system, which would enormously reduce telegraph [illegible]. It is believed that the government [illegible] contracts with trustworthy companies for the transmission of all messages at rates which would leave a handsome profit on the scale of charges above named. This highly important subject will come prominently before Congress at its ensuing session, when it will be considered in all its bearings.

[illegible] ago the last page of the marriage [illegible] of the dauphin (Louis XIV.) [illegible] Antoinette, bearing the signatures of [illegible] bride and of the royal bridegroom, as well as of his brother and of the Count d'Artois (Charles X.) the notaries, and [illegible] lesser personages, was sold for the sum of 4s. 2d. The day was one of unceasing rain. The sale was not previously announced, and thus some lucky mortal, who, perhaps, went to the Hotel Drouot for the [illegible] purpose of passing an idle half-hour, carried off a prize for which the imperial archives would have paid its weight in gold.

A Berlin paper says that the present Belgian Minister at Madrid has witnessed the fall of five thrones, overthrown by five revolutions. He was at Paris in 1830 and 1848, at Naples in 1861, at Athens when Otho had to quit, and finally, he has witnessed the [illegible] of Queen Isabella. Belgium had now better send him to Paris, suggests the impertinent Volks Zeitung. And why not to P[illegible]? retorts a Paris paper. Still the same interchange of amenities! Surely, as there is no chance of any biting for the present, it would be more dignified not to bark so much.

DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR the District of Oregon.—In the matter of F. G. Morrow and S. L. Barr, bankrupts—In Bankruptcy.—A warrant in Bankruptcy has been issued by said Court against the estate of F. G. Morrow and S. L. Barr, of the county of Union, and State of Oregon, in said District, adjudged bankrupts upon the petition of their creditors, and the payment of any debts, and the delivery of any property belonging to said bankrupts, to them or to their use, and the transfer of any property by them are forbidden by law. A meeting of the creditors of said bankrupts, to prove their debts and to choose one or more assignees of their estate will be held at a Court of Bankruptcy, to be holden at Portland in said District, on the 9th day of January, A. D. 1869, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the office of W. Lair Hill, one of the Registers in Bankruptcy of said Court.

Mr. Zachariah Wilson, Portland, Oregon, writes:

"It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments. Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting. The astonishing efficacy that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago, of long standing entitles Dr. Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil, to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Ear-ache, Distressing Pains etc."

John English of Howell Prairie, Marion county, Oregon writes:

"I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities accompanied with a severe cough for two months so that I had to use crutches, meanwhile trying all remedies in common use. Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief, and I was able to walk in four days without crutches. I have not felt any rheumatism since. I have seen your family medicines used with excellent success. I have no hesitancy in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever tried for those complaints. I am now on my way to South America after residing in Oregon twenty years. I must now have two dozens Balsam and two dozens of your Magic Oil, dollar bottles, as I am sure they are the best remedies in Oregon, and I would not be without them in my house, and when this package of medicine is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply.

CHANGE OF NAME!

MERCADO & CO., SUCCESSORS TO Mercado & Seully have been obliged for their own protection and the safety of the public, to change the name of their celebrated Bitters to

MERCADO'S
Native California Wine
BITTERS

We subjoin the following affidavit in an injunction suit formerly pending between Mercado & Seully, plaintiffs, and G. A. Simon, defendant.

P. Sainsevain, being duly sworn, says, "That the article known as Sainsevain's California Wine Bitters was manufactured by Mercado & Seully, about the month of March, 1861, without the said Sainsevain Brothers having any concern in the manufacture thereof. The deponent has always known and considered said Mercado & Seully as the Sole Proprietors of the Sainsevain California Wine Bitters."

Notwithstanding the above affidavit the said P. Sainsevain is putting up a compound under the name of Sainsevain's California Wine Bitters, representing it to be the same as our celebrated Bitters, which we have been manufacturing and selling in immense quantities since 1860, and also affixing a nearly similar label to that used on our genuine Wine Bitters. BE NOT DECEIVED! Send for

NATIVE CALIFORNIA WINE BITTERS,

And you will obtain the same popular beverage so favorably known since 1859. Beware of Counterfeits! Purchasers of our Wine Bitters are requested to observe the familiar old yellow label, and see that the words, "MERCADO & SEULLY, SAN FRANCISCO," are engraved on the Government stamp pasted over the cork of each bottle. This is the only effectual security against the counterfeit imitations.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to everything of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,
AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF
Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

TELEGRAMS FROM THE EAST AND EUROPE

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both [illegible] and [illegible] from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

Commercial Reports

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with [illegible], making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and [illegible] to gain [illegible] circulation and support.

TERMS:

One Year	$3 00.
Six Months	2 00.
Three Months	1 00.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been a favorite paper for mailing to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.

Subscribers will find on each paper, with their names, the date on which their subscriptions expire, as entered on our books. In renewing, the name of subscriber and post office should be distinctly written.

All papers are discontinued at the end of the time for which they have been paid, the date of which is always printed with the name each week.

REMIT BY MAIL AT OUR RISK, in presence of Postmaster, or pay to the nearest authorized agent.

We ask our friends to aid us in extending the circulation of the OREGONIAN in every direction.

HIRAM [illegible]

Ophthalmic Panacea

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST [illegible] EYE HEALER that has yet been [illegible]. It CURES the most stubborn and CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATIONS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently [illegible] in the few months in which it has been [illegible] public notice. The proprietor is so fully [illegible] of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE or REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do [illegible] and a trial of it is therefore without [illegible] the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE [illegible] and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE, NATHAN [illegible]
A. L. WALLACE, C. R. [illegible]
Mrs. MONTGOMERY, JOHN [illegible]
W. D. PORTER, ROBT [illegible]

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the diseased eyes are advised to give this [illegible] the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY [illegible]. Prepared by SMITH & [illegible]

SMITH & DAVIS, [illegible] General Agents, to whom all orders [illegible] and for sale by all Druggists.
